Anti-Ragging Committee –Rockwell Business School of Management affiliated to Osmania University

Osmania University, like all educational institutions in India, strictly follows the University Grants Commission (UGC) guidelines to prevent ragging on campus. The Anti-Ragging Committee is responsible for ensuring a safe and harassment-free environment for students.

Roles & Responsibilities of the Anti-Ragging Committee

1. Preventing Ragging – Ensuring that no student is subjected to physical or mental harassment.
2. Spreading Awareness – Conducting orientation programs and displaying anti-ragging posters.
3. Strict Monitoring – Surveillance in hostels, classrooms, and campus areas.
4. Handling Complaints – Addressing complaints of ragging swiftly and fairly.
5. Taking Disciplinary Action – Punishing those found guilty as per university and legal norms.

Punishments for Ragging

As per UGC regulations, students found guilty of ragging may face:

- Suspension or expulsion from the university
- Cancellation of admission
- FIR (First Information Report) with the police
- Financial penalties or legal action

How to Report Ragging?

Students can report ragging through:

- College helpline numbers +919154223040, +9154223044.
- E-mail: rockwellbusinessschool@gmail.com
- Directly approaching the Anti-Ragging Committee members
